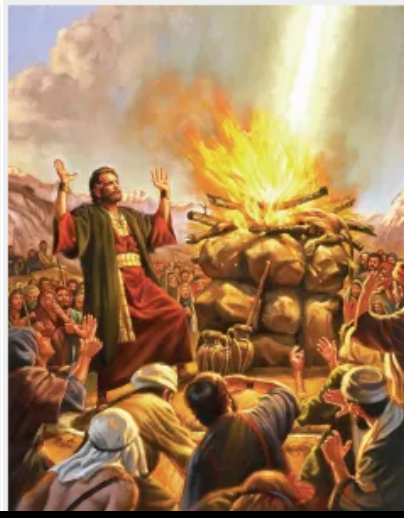
STILL WONDERING OF THE GODS OF THE JEWS AND ISRAELITES WERE NICE GUYS?

This lion faced reptilian god Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge demanded virgin girls, oxen, sheep etc to consume and use for various reasons, the Old Testament texts do not say why but knowing what we know about aliens today it's not that hard to figure out. He liked the smell of burning or cooking meat which is mentioned in Genesis. However if those who created the smell of incense got it wrong Yahweh murdered them using fire that came down from the sky. I think of a UFO tractor beam when I hear this. THIS IS NOT THE IMAGE OF THE LOVING FATHER JESUS SPOKE OF. WHY WOULD THE JROCCC PROMOTE THIS EVIL JEWISH ALIEN god today unless it fits in with their End Time Delusion of mankind agendas?



So fire came out from the presence of YHWH and consumed them (burned them up) and they died before (in front of) YHWH.

Moses then said to Aaron, "This is what the Lord spoke of when he said,
"'Among those who approach me I will be proved holy.
In the sight of all the people I will be honoured.'

Aaron remained silent. Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come here; carry your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the sanctuary." So they came and carried them, still in their tunics, outside the camp, as Moses ordered.

Just listen to how evil these warring Jewish alien Elohim gods were.

The Lord's Judgment on Ahaziah

After Ahab's death, Moab rebelled against Israel. Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers, saying to them, "Go and consult Baal-Zebub, the eloh of Ekron, to see if I will recover from this injury."

So Elijah went. When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you come back?" "A man came to meet us," they replied, "and he said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, "This is what Yahweh says: Is it because there is no elohim in Israel that you are sending messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the eloh of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!"

The king asked them, "What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?" They replied, "He had a garment of hair and had a leather belt around his waist." The king said, "That was Elijah the Tishbite." Then he sent to Elijah a captain with his company of fifty men. The captain went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, "Man of elohim, the king says, 'Come down!'

Elijah answered the captain, "If I am a man of elohim, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then fire fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men. At this the king sent to Elijah another captain with his fifty men. The captain said to him, "Man of elohim, this is what the king says, 'Come down at once!'"

"If I am a man of elohim," Elijah replied, "may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!" Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men. So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. "Man of elohim," he begged, "Please have respect for my life and the lives of these fifty men, your servants! See, fire has fallen from heaven and consumed the first two captains and all their men. But now have respect for my life!"

The messenger (Heb. malach) of Yahweh said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him."

So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king. He told the king, "This is what Yahweh says: Is it because there is no God in Israel for you to consult that you have sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the eloh of Ekron? Because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!" So he died, according to the word of Yahweh that Elijah had spoken.

I Kings 14:22

Judah did evil in the eyes of Yahweh. By the sins they committed they stirred up his jealous anger more than their fathers had done. They also set up for themselves high places, sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree. There were even male shrine prostitutes in the land; the people engaged in all the detestable practices of the nations that Yahweh had driven out before the Israelites.

2 Kings 17:10

From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in every place they lived. They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree. At every high place they burned incense, as the nations whom Yahweh had driven out before them had done. They did wicked things that provoked Yahweh to anger. They worshiped idols, though Yahweh had said, "You shall not do this."

Yahweh warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers: "Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your ancestors to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets." But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their ancestors, who did not trust in Yahweh their elohim. They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their ancestors and the warnings he had given them. They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless. They imitated the nations around them although Yahweh had ordered them, "Do not do as they do."

They forsook all the commands of the Lord their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts (the Saba Hassamayim) and they worshiped Baal. They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They practiced divination and sorcery and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh, provoking him to anger.

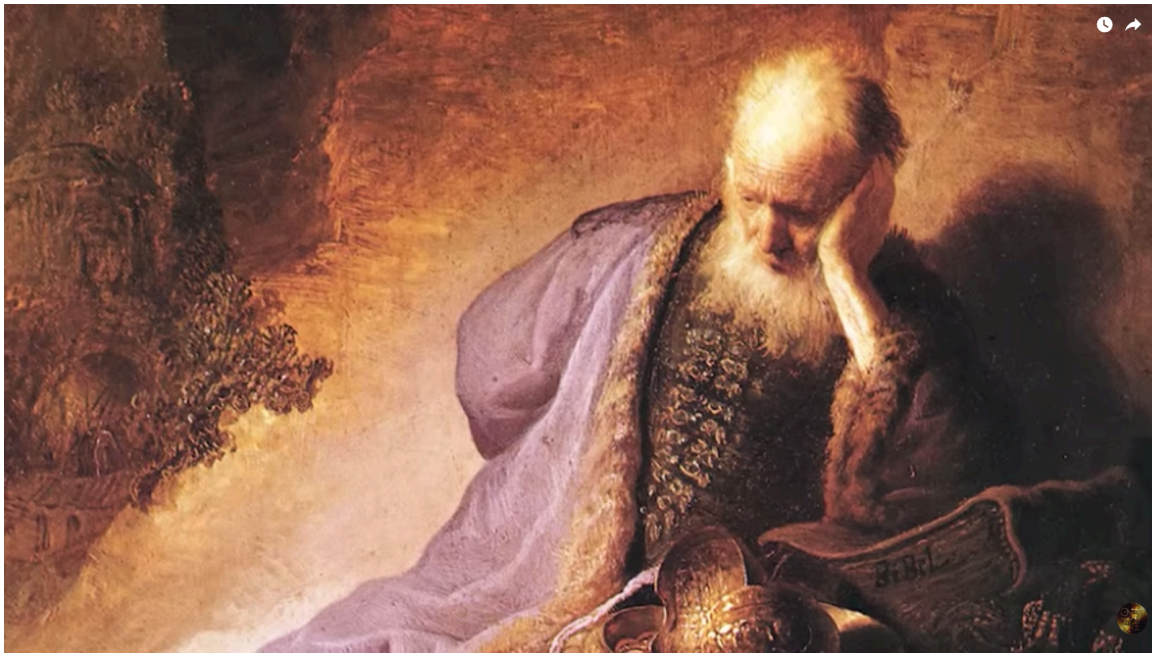
Any Christian who does not realize how evil these alien Elohim gods are should check to see if the have fish eggs for brains

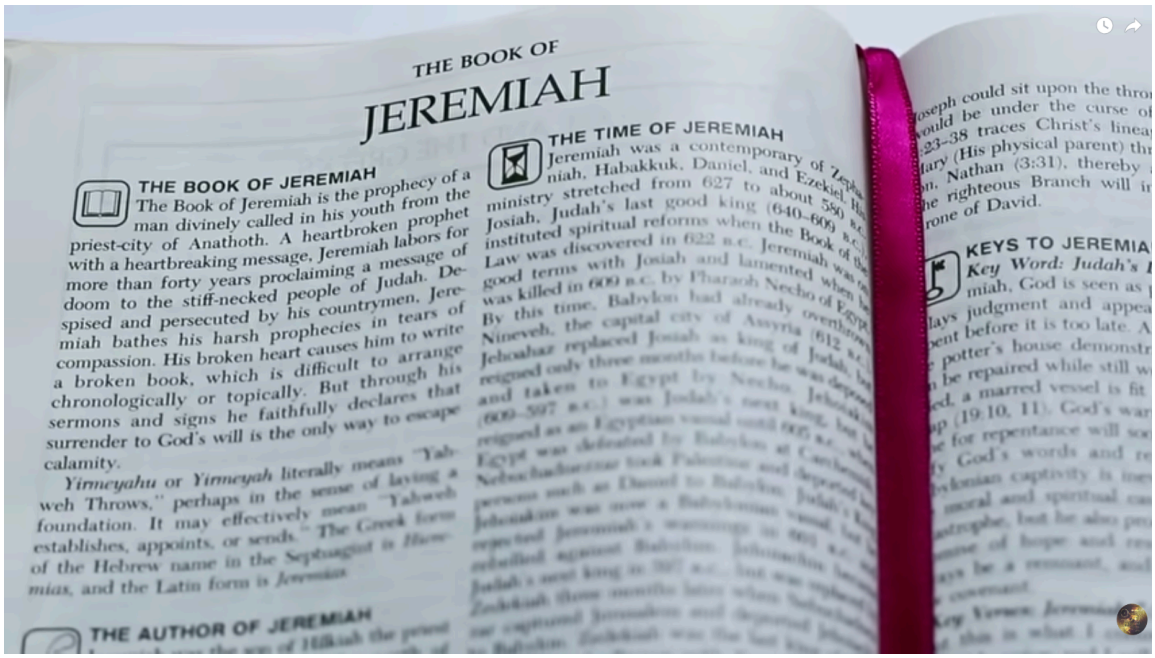
Jeremiah 2:20

"Long ago you broke off your yoke and tore off your bonds; you said, 'I will not serve you!' Indeed, on every high hill and under every spreading tree you lay down as a prostitute."

They forsook all the commands of the Lord their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts (the Saba Hassamayim) and they worshiped Baal. They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They practiced divination and sorcery and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh, provoking him to anger.

The Hebrew people who worshipped the Nordic Alien Elohim and Asherah were a more positive group with no blood sacrifices or temple prostitutions





THE BOOK OF
THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH
The Book of Jeremiah is the prophecy of a man divinely called in his youth from the priest-city of Anathoth. A heartbroken prophet with a heartbreaking message, Jeremiah labors for more than forty years proclaiming a message of doom to the stiff-necked people of Judah. Despised and persecuted by his countrymen, Jeremiah bathes his harsh prophecies in tears of compassion. His broken heart causes him to write a broken book, which is difficult to arrange chronologically or topically. But through his sermons and signs he faithfully declares that surrender to God's will is the only way to escape calamity.
Yirmeyahu or Yirmeyah literally means "Yahweh Throws," perhaps in the sense of laying a foundation. It may effectively mean "Yahweh establishes, appoints, or sends." The Greek form of the Hebrew name in the Septuagint is Hieremias, and the Latin form is Jeremias
THE AUTHOR OF JEREMIAH
THE TIME OF JEREMIAH
Jeremiah was a contemporary of Zephaniah, Habakkuk, Daniel, and Ezekiel. His ministry stretched from 627 to about 580 B.C. Josiah, Judah's last good king (640–609 B.C.), instituted spiritual reforms when the Book of the Law was discovered in 622 B.C. Jeremiah was on good terms with Josiah and lamented when he was killed in 609 B.C. by Pharaoh Necho of Egypt. By this time, Babylon had already overthrown Nineveh, the capital city of Assyria (612 B.C.). Jehoahaz replaced Josiah as king of Judah, but reigned only three months before he was deposed and taken to Egypt by Necho. Jehoiakim (609–597 B.C.) was Judah's next king, but he reigned as an Egyptian vassal until 605 B.C., when Nebuchadnezzar took Palestine and deported persons such as Daniel to Babylon. Judah's Jehoiakim was now a Babylonian vassal, but he rebelled against Jeremiah's warnings in 601 B.C. Judah's next king in 597 B.C., but was replaced Zedekiah three months later when Nebuchadnezzar captured Jerusalem and deported Jehoiachin to Babylon. Zedekiah was the last king

Jeremiah promoted the worship of Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiurge

Jeremiah 3:6
During the reign of King Josiah, Yahweh said to me,
"Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree and has committed adultery there."

What we have are the Israelites worshipping the alien goddess Asherah while the Jews were worshipping Yahweh Ildabaoth the Demiruge. Neither the Jews or Israelites knew about or worshipped Our Heavenly Father and Jesus hadn't stepped foot in Israel yet either for another 700 years according to Jewish O.T. teachings.

When Christians glibly refer to these evil Jewish alien gods I CRINGE because these VERY MISGUIDED PEOPLE have no idea who they are promoting.
